2010-11 CoSIDA Undergraduate Scholarship Application

The CoSIDA Undergraduate Scholarship Program is designed to assist outstanding undergraduate students in sports information offices who have expressed an interest in pursuing a career in collegiate sports information and who require financial assistance for their education. There will be two $2,500 undergraduate scholarships — the Fred Nuesch-Dave Wohlhueter Scholarships — awarded for the 2010-11 school year.

Basic qualifications:

1. A minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 (on a 4.00 scale) for all undergraduate academic work to date.
2. Undergraduate classification as a senior or junior for the 2010-11 school year.
3. An interest to pursue a career in sports information.
4. Proof of enrollment at the school of the student's choice before funds will be released (see terms and conditions below).
5. Winners must be undergraduates, with projected date of graduation no sooner than the end of the spring, 2011, term (May or June, depending on the respective school's academic calendar)

Terms and conditions:

1. There will be two scholarships — the Fred Nuesch-Dave Wohlhueter Scholarships — awarded for the 2010-11 school year.
2. There is a limit of one scholarship per institution per year.
3. The scholarships will be allocated as follows: $1,250 in September, $1,250 in January
